

Personal Information Protection Statement

1. Personal information will be collected from you for the purpose of accreditation as a building practitioner in the state of Tasmania and will be used by the Department of Justice for managing, assessing, advising upon and determining the relevant application and may be used for other purposes permitted by the Building Act 2000 and Regulations made by or under that Act.
2. You are required to provide this information by the Building Act 2000 and Regulations made under that Act. Failure to provide this information may result in your application not being able to be processed.
3. Your personal information will be used for the primary purpose for which it is collected, and may be disclosed to contractors and agents of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, courts and other organisations authorised to collect it.
4. Your basic personal information may be disclosed to other public sector bodies where necessary for the efficient storage and use of the information.
5. Personal information will be managed in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 and may be accessed by the individual to whom it relates on request to the Department of Justice. You may be charged a fee for this service.
